Over the past ten years Baroness Caroline Sweerts de Landas has created tulip heaven at her home, Dunsborough Park, in Ripley. During April and May up to 40,000 tulips burst into bloom, creating the most striking sea of colour each year. Caroline brings bulbs over from the Netherlands, and plants them at the end of November. They are meticulously ordered in lines according to colour and variety. The garden was originally designed by Penelope Hobhouse.

Please note: Bookings must reach Gill Taylor no later than Friday 16 March If you would like us to acknowledge receipt of your cheque please enclose a SAE.
